

DAY 1 - April 11th

09:30h Inauguration of the conference.

by the organisers, Dr Marta Ferrer Garcia (Vice-Rector for Students and Participation) and Dr Jaume Buxeda i Garrigós (Vice-dean of Research of the School of Geography and History).

Keynote speaker

10:00h Analysing Roman Transport Networks in the Post-Digital Era

Pau de Soto Cañamares (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona).

Session 1 - Migration and human mobility

Chaired by Arnau Lario Devesa

10:40h Female Mobility in Diplomatic and Military Practice during the Roman Expansion in the West (III-II BC)

Borja Vertedor Ballesteros and Hatim Boumehache Erjali (Universitat de les Illes Balears; Universidad del País Vasco).

11:00h Being a foreigner and dying in Rome. A study of bilingual metrical epitaphs in Greek and Latin discovered in the Urbs

Sandra Muñoz Martínez (Universitat de Barcelona).

11:20h Understanding Late Antique Mobility and "Migrants" in Modern Thought

Teifion Gambold (Prifysgol Caerdydd/Cardiff University).

11:40h Q&A with the panellists

11:50h - 12:10h COFFEE BREAK

Session 2 - Social mobility

Chaired by Marc Marzo Pallàs.

12:10h Estudio arqueológico y espacial de la ciudad egipcia de Lahun (Reino Medio, Fayum).

Laura Hernando Folch (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona).

12:30h Authority and Concession: Social Mobility from a Ptolemaic Land Survey (P. Haun. IV 70)

Chenqing An (University College London).

12:50h Power and Control: Understanding Prostitution in Ancient Times

Carina Mkrtychyan ("Sapienza" Università di Roma).

13:10h Mobility at the crossroads: careers and progression during the transition from Domitian to Trajan

Antonio Romano (Le Mans Université).

13:30h Q&A with the panellists

13:40h - 15:00h LUNCH BREAK

Session 3 - Moving identities and cultural/religious interactions

Chaired by Oriol Morillas Samaniego.

15:00h Travelling Mythologies: the Movement of the Divine Throughout the Mediterranean and Beyond

Zeren Deniz Ataçoçuğu (Newcastle University).

15:20h The cult of Arsinoe II Philadelphus. The "international" success of a Greek-Egyptian goddess

Anita Malagrino (Università degli Studi di Bari "Aldo Moro").

15:40h Con el favor de los dioses: la importancia de la religión en la colonización griega del sur de Italia

Lucía Díez Rodríguez (Universidad Complutense de Madrid).

16:00h Travelling identities. Space and self-fashioning in fourth-century Greco-Roman authors

Mathijs Clement (Chent University).

16:20h La dispersión del culto martirial de santos locales por el territorio de Hispania entre los siglos IV-VI

Víctor Gómez Guinovart (Universitat de Barcelona).

16:40h Q&A with the panellists

DAY 2 - April 12th

Session 4 - Political trends and practices

Chaired by Arnau Lario Devesa.

10:00h Whistles, Applauses and politicians' welcoming of the Italic people: non-verbal expressions of the crowd in the Late Ancient Republic

Agata Otranto (Università degli Studi di Bari "Aldo Moro").

10:20h Rhetoric and mobility: an innovative vision of mobility in the post Diocletian era

Antonio Avilio (Università degli Studi di Napoli "Federico II").

10:40h Changes of Gaul in late antiquity: Gregory of Tours as an exceptional witness of social and political mobility?

Davide Vago (Università degli Studi di Genova).

11:00h Bishop correspondence in 5th century Gaul. Leadership in times of crisis

Angel Rodríguez García (Universitat de Barcelona).

11:20h Q&A with the panellists

11:30h - 12:00h COFFEE BREAK

Session 5 - Trade and movement of goods

Chaired by Joan Campmany Jiménez.

12:00h The Journey of a Ceramic Shape: Trading Black-figured Amphorae to Iberia

Alejandro Garés Molero and Guiomar Pulido González (Universitat de València; Universidad de Salamanca).

12:20h Marmora and commerce; the case of the mortars in public spaces of Baetulo

Andrea Collado Padilla (Institut Català d'Arqueologia Clàssica).

12:40h Greek amphoric epigraphy and Mediterranean trade through the CEIPAC database

Oriol Morillas Samaniego and Albert Sala Jarque (Universitat de Barcelona).

13:00h The supply of coinage in Mediterranean Hispania during the reigns of Trajan and Hadrian (98-138 A.D.)

Francisco Javier Sánchez Conde (Universidad de Salamanca).

13:20h Tipología anfórica y movilidad comercial. Reflexiones sobre la cuestión tarraconense

Carlos Palacín Copado (Universitat de Barcelona).

13:40h The regulation of maritime transport in the Edict on Maximum Prices, a major cause of its failure

Antoni Nieva i Paguina (Universitat de Barcelona).

14:00h Q&A with the panellists

14:10h Wrap-up